C.J. Box shows yet again why hes one of the best storytellers alive today with Storm Watch, a riveting new adventure that features one of his best twists and most shocking endings yet. Trust me, whatever you do, do not miss this book.

John Sanford (Rules of Prey) says:

He cant shoot, wrecks his trucks, annoys his bosses, but Joe Pickett is the one man youd want by your side in a crisis.

Box is writing at the top of his game.

Kirkus reviews (starred review):

Like a patient spider, Box plays out plotline after plotline, balancing his sympathies adroitly between anti-establishment libertarians who've had enough of the coastal elites and officers sworn to serve and protect their communities, before knotting them all together with a climactic revelation that for better or worse will leave you gasping. One of the most successful of Box's increasingly ambitious have-it-all thrillers.
